Andamans: Nature's Blessing!

04 N / 05 D

Port Blair > Swaraj Dweep > Baratang Island

Andaman and Nicobar Islands shimmer like emeralds in the Bay of Bengal. Its tropical forest comprises a blend of flora with elements from Indian, Myanmar, Malaysian and endemic floral strains. The dense and picturesque forest which cover these islands creates an extremely poetic and romantic environ.

These islands are home to India's best nesting beaches for 3 species of marine turtles - Hawksbill, Green Turtle and the world's largest sea turtle - the Leatherback. It is a paradise for water sports enthusiasts as Scuba Diving is a must and prevalent activity here.

* Day 01 Arrive in Port Blair

Arrive at the Airport and exit to be welcomed by us. Transfer to hotel. Visit the 1906 Cellular Jail, which is also notoriously known among Indian Freedom Fighters as Kalapani. Later, explore Corbyn's Cove Beach and enjoy an informative light and sound show. This show brings to life the jail's profound connection to the independence movement and the freedom fighters. Overnight in Port Blair.

* Day 02 Swaraj Dweep (formerly referred as Havelock Island), Radhanagar Beach

Early ferry ride to reach Swaraj Dweep - formerly referred to as Havelock Island, famous for its coastal line. Check in to your hotel upon arrival. Later, visit Radhanagar beach on the island. It is considered to be amongst the best places for swimming as there are no rocks along the coast and it doesn't invite high tides. Although Havelock is the most developed island, it still enjoys the charm of being very quaint - a world away from the busy life of mainland India. Overnight on Havelock.

Note: For morning ferry departure, we suggest you to carry packed breakfast with you.

* Day 03 Swaraj Dweep (Havelock) to Port Blair
